ARTICLE INDEX

FEATURES

MARKETS

Economic expansion: How solid is it? (2005 economic outlook) January p.24
Energy prices: Where do we go from here? (sector analysis) February p.24
Stock outlook: Is the glass half empty or half full? (where are stocks headed) March p.26
The outlook for a deficit driven dollar (U.S. dollar analysis) April p.26
Boarding the precious metals flight? (metals sector) May p.26
Who will win...supply or demand (grain sector analysis) June p.26
What will further tightening bring? (mid year economic outlook) July p.28
Does a summer bear equal a bullish fall? (mid year stock market analysis) August p.24
The U.S. dollar: Tolerant or unforgiving? (U.S. dollar analysis) September p.28
Unraveling the energy sector (sector analysis) October p.26
Large yields calling the shots (grain sector analysis) November p.26
Looking for the hot markets of 2006 (market predictions for 2006) December p.24

EQUITY TRADING TECHNIQUES

Intraday setup for E-mini trading (E-minis) January p.36
Dynamic doji is a clear trend reversal signal (candlesticks) February p.40
How best to evaluate system performance (system performance measures) March p.36
Going wide with VHF indicator (vertical horizon filter) April p.36
ADX: The key to market trends (trending indicators) May p.34
Getting your kicks with candlesticks (tips for reading candlesticks) June p.36
The two-edged sword of optimization (optimization without curve fitting) July p.38
Extreme short term profits in stocks (high frequency trading) August p.32
Collaring the bulls and bears (using options to cut risk) September p.40
Timing your butterfly trades (butterfly spreads) October p.36
Getting a handle with adaptive limits (overbought and oversold indicators) November p.38
An engulfing good time with candlesticks (engulfing patterns) December p.32

TRADING TECHNIQUES

Fade the breadth (interpreting market breadth) January p.42
Open-ended questions for closed-minded people (unusual spreads) January p.44
Should forex traders battle the banks? (the role of central banks) January p.48
Setting the stage for option selling (option writing) January p.52
Think before you link stocks and commodities (stocks vs. commodities) February p.44
Adapting your system for non-linear markets (system techniques) February p.48
Eye on China: Trading the yuan revaluation (currency revaluation) February p.52
Liquidity: Lubricant of option selling (option writing) February p.56
Option selling: Getting defensive (covered option writing) March p.42
The euro and the logic of money (currency cycles) March p.46
You can trade clearly now with ODI (using options index indicators) March p.50
Trading around an idealized model (analyzing trading systems) March p.54
Other governments, other debts (intermarket spreads) April p.40
Winning with volatility skew (how to price options) April p.44
Option selling, reality and the cosmic speed limit (option writing) April p.48
Dollar rally not a coin toss (trading forex off of interest rates) April p.52
How to trade collapse in volatility (pricing options) May p.42
The price is right sometimes (CPI analysis) May p.38
Popping the housing bubble (housing market analysis) May p.44
U.S. Dollar: Cyclical strengths vs. structural weakness (dollar indicators) May p.48
10 ways to measure success (gauging trading success) June p.40
Getting mechanical with oscillators (building trading systems) June p.44
Working at unemployment (trading off of economic numbers) June p.48
Retracing trends and profit opportunities (reading retracements) July p.42
The rise and fall of the merchandise trade reports (economic report analysis) July p.48
Option selling with limited risk (covered option writing) July p.52
There's money in the wind: OJ trading opportunities (seasonal trends in OJ) July p.56
Are you confident about sentiment (retail sales report) August p.36
How real traders trade inflation (reading inflation indicators) August p.40
Getting to know TED (short-term/long-term interest rate spreads) August p.44
Fall of Enron comes full circle (Enron's effect on energy markets) September p.44
New twist on an old indicator (predicting moving averages) September p.48
The permanent importance of durable goods (reading economic indicators) September p.52
Market timing with cycle analysis (technical analysis tools) September p.56
Lunchtime in Germany, breakfast in New York (trading non-U.S. indexes) September p.60
Mind your trading (psychology of trading) October p.40
Are anecdotal indicators suggesting another market collapse? (major event predictors) October p.44
Intraday trading with the Herrick Payoff Index (trading off of volume and open interest) October p.48
Volatility cues can lead equity prices (using volatility as an indicator) November p.44
Simple systems, big profits (trend following systems) November p.48
Taking your FX cues from intermarket analysis (using other markets as indicators) November p.54
Will the real price please stand up? (deficiencies in continuous charts) November p.58
Gold, oil and dollar repercussions (cyclical patterns in major markets) December p.36
A sideways and directional proposition (the hedged Asian straddle strategy) December p.40
Following the median line to profit (the Andrew's pitchfork technical tool) December p.44

TECHNOLOGY & TRADING

Walking before you run with system optimization (simple optimization tools) February p.60
Out of sample, out of mind (second in series, optimizing without curve fitting) April p.54
Walk like a trader (complex optimization tools) June p.52
Market cycles — are they fundamental? (defining market cycles) August p.48
The truth about intermarket analysis (demystifying a simple strategy) December p.48

FUTURES INTERVIEW

Harris Brumfield makes an offer (Q&A with TT's CEO) March p.68
Hot commodities will get hotter (Q&A with hedge fund guru Jim Rogers) May p.64
Inside the not-so cozy world of cotton (Profile of cotton trader Joe Nicosia) June p.68

FUTURES 101

Oscillators explained (confirmation tools) January p.56
Trading more markets can mean more money (diversified trading) February p.64
Myths and facts of trading (debunking trading myths) March p.58
New Trader's checklist (getting started in trading) April p.58
Breakouts for beginners (simple breakout strategies) May p.52
Continuation patterns for beginners, June p.58
Reversal patterns for beginners, July p.60
ETFs for beginners, August p.52
Trading the number — literally (event driven markets) September p.64
Tout le mond for U.S. traders (trading European markets) October p.56
Old school, hard nose, soft markets (intro to softs trading) November p.62
First rays of the new rising sun (trading Asian markets) December p.52

MANAGED MONEY

How much are you paying? (an examination of trading fees) January p.60
Like it or not, NASD limits trail commissions (regulators cap CPO fees) February p.70
Top Traders of 2004 (2003's best CTAs) March p.62
Forex-only funds go mainstream (a look at different forex strategies) April p.62
Finding the right niche (sector-based CTAs) May p.56
Regulatory musical chairs (analysis of CFTC CPO roundtable) June p.64
How to select a CTA (measuring CTA performance) July p.70
Managed futures for all (retail sized managed futures programs) August p.56
Dr. Strangefund (a look at growth in long-only commodity funds) September p.70
Hot new CTAs: Squeezing cost to increase returns (annual feature on rising CTA stars) October p.62
How were so many fooled? (the Bayou hedge fund fraud) November p.70
2006: Hedge funds get regulated (international trends in regulation) December p.60

TRADE TRENDS

Patent this! (a look at TT's patents effect on the marketplace) January p.64
Futures without floors: Jobs for non-traders (the future of exchanges) February p.76
Tops & Bottoms of 2004 (a tongue in cheek look at the year's events) February p.80
Futures interview: Harris Brumfield makes an offer (Q&A with TT's CEO) March p.68
Not your fathers trading technology (technology enhancements) March p.72
Why can't we all just get along? (changing relationships among exchanges) April p.66
Hot commodities will get hotter (Q&A with hedge fund guru Jim Rogers) May p.64
Emerging markets: The next generation (a look at fledgling exchanges in China and India) June p.72
Trader's guide to the E.U. galaxy (creating synergy in Europe) July p.74

ARTICLE INDEX

FEATURES

MARKETS

Economic expansion: How solid is it? (2005 economic outlook) January p.24
Energy prices: Where do we go from here? (sector analysis) February p.24
Stock outlook: Is the glass half empty or half full? (where are stocks headed) March p.26
The outlook for a deficit driven dollar (U.S. dollar analysis) April p.26
Boarding the precious metals flight? (metals sector) May p.26
Who will win...supply or demand (grain sector analysis) June p.26
What will further tightening bring? (mid year economic outlook) July p.28
Does a summer bear equal a bullish fall? (mid year stock market analysis) August p.24
The U.S. dollar: Tolerant or unforgiving? (U.S. dollar analysis) September p.28
Unraveling the energy sector (sector analysis) October p.26
Large yields calling the shots (grain sector analysis) November p.26
Looking for the hot markets of 2006 (market predictions for 2006) December p.24

EQUITY TRADING TECHNIQUES

Intraday setup for E-mini trading (E-minis) January p.36
Dynamic doji is a clear trend reversal signal (candlesticks) February p.40
How best to evaluate system performance (system performance measures) March p.36
Going wide with VHF indicator (vertical horizon filter) April p.36
ADX: The key to market trends (trending indicators) May p.34
Getting your kicks with candlesticks (tips for reading candlesticks) June p.36
The two-edged sword of optimization (optimization without curve fitting) July p.38
Extreme short term profits in stocks (high frequency trading) August p.32
Collaring the bulls and bears (using options to cut risk) September p.40
Timing your butterfly trades (butterfly spreads) October p.36
Getting a handle with adaptive limits (overbought and oversold indicators) November p.38
An engulfing good time with candlesticks (engulfing patterns) December p.32

TRADING TECHNIQUES

Fade the breadth (interpreting market breadth) January p.42
Open-ended questions for closed-minded people (unusual spreads) January p.44
Should forex traders battle the banks? (the role of central banks) January p.48
Setting the stage for option selling (option writing) January p.52
Think before you link stocks and commodities (stocks vs. commodities) February p.44
Adapting your system for non-linear markets (system techniques) February p.48
Eye on China: Trading the yuan revaluation (currency revaluation) February p.52
Liquidity: Lubricant of option selling (option writing) February p.56
Option selling: Getting defensive (covered option writing) March p.42
The euro and the logic of money (currency cycles) March p.46
You can trade clearly now with ODI (using options index indicators) March p.50
Trading around an idealized model (analyzing trading systems) March p.54
Other governments, other debts (intermarket spreads) April p.40
Winning with volatility skew (how to price options) April p.44
Option selling, reality and the cosmic speed limit (option writing) April p.48
Dollar rally not a coin toss (trading forex off of interest rates) April p.52
How to trade collapse in volatility (pricing options) May p.42
The price is right sometimes (CPI analysis) May p.38
Popping the housing bubble (housing market analysis) May p.44
U.S. Dollar: Cyclical strengths vs. structural weakness (dollar indicators) May p.48
10 ways to measure success (gauging trading success) June p.40
Getting mechanical with oscillators (building trading systems) June p.44
Working at unemployment (trading off of economic numbers) June p.48
Retracing trends and profit opportunities (reading retracements) July p.42
The rise and fall of the merchandise trade reports (economic report analysis) July p.48
Option selling with limited risk (covered option writing) July p.52
There's money in the wind: OJ trading opportunities (seasonal trends in OJ) July p.56
Are you confident about sentiment (retail sales report) August p.36
How real traders trade inflation (reading inflation indicators) August p.40
Getting to know TED (short-term/long-term interest rate spreads) August p.44
Fall of Enron comes full circle (Enron's effect on energy markets) September p.44
New twist on an old indicator (predicting moving averages) September p.48
The permanent importance of durable goods (reading economic indicators) September p.52
Market timing with cycle analysis (technical analysis tools) September p.56
Lunchtime in Germany, breakfast in New York (trading non-U.S. indexes) September p.60
Mind your trading (psychology of trading) October p.40
Are anecdotal indicators suggesting another market collapse? (major event predictors) October p.44
Intraday trading with the Herrick Payoff Index (trading off of volume and open interest) October p.48
Volatility cues can lead equity prices (using volatility as an indicator) November p.44
Simple systems, big profits (trend following systems) November p.48
Taking your FX cues from intermarket analysis (using other markets as indicators) November p.54
Will the real price please stand up? (deficiencies in continuous charts) November p.58
Gold, oil and dollar repercussions (cyclical patterns in major markets) December p.36
A sideways and directional proposition (the hedged Asian straddle strategy) December p.40
Following the median line to profit (the Andrew's pitchfork technical tool) December p.44

TECHNOLOGY & TRADING

Walking before you run with system optimization (simple optimization tools) February p.60
Out of sample, out of mind (second in series, optimizing without curve fitting) April p.54
Walk like a trader (complex optimization tools) June p.52
Market cycles — are they fundamental? (defining market cycles) August p.48
The truth about intermarket analysis (demystifying a simple strategy) December p.48

FUTURES INTERVIEW

Harris Brumfield makes an offer (Q&A with TT's CEO) March p.68
Hot commodities will get hotter (Q&A with hedge fund guru Jim Rogers) May p.64
Inside the not-so cozy world of cotton (Profile of cotton trader Joe Nicosia) June p.68

FUTURES 101

Oscillators explained (confirmation tools) January p.56
Trading more markets can mean more money (diversified trading) February p.64
Myths and facts of trading (debunking trading myths) March p.58
New Trader's checklist (getting started in trading) April p.58
Breakouts for beginners (simple breakout strategies) May p.52
Continuation patterns for beginners, June p.58
Reversal patterns for beginners, July p.60
ETFs for beginners, August p.52
Trading the number — literally (event driven markets) September p.64
Tout le mond for U.S. traders (trading European markets) October p.56
Old school, hard nose, soft markets (intro to softs trading) November p.62
First rays of the new rising sun (trading Asian markets) December p.52

MANAGED MONEY

How much are you paying? (an examination of trading fees) January p.60
Like it or not, NASD limits trail commissions (regulators cap CPO fees) February p.70
Top Traders of 2004 (2003's best CTAs) March p.62
Forex-only funds go mainstream (a look at different forex strategies) April p.62
Finding the right niche (sector-based CTAs) May p.56
Regulatory musical chairs (analysis of CFTC CPO roundtable) June p.64
How to select a CTA (measuring CTA performance) July p.70
Managed futures for all (retail sized managed futures programs) August p.56
Dr. Strangefund (a look at growth in long-only commodity funds) September p.70
Hot new CTAs: Squeezing cost to increase returns (annual feature on rising CTA stars) October p.62
How were so many fooled? (the Bayou hedge fund fraud) November p.70
2006: Hedge funds get regulated (international trends in regulation) December p.60

TRADE TRENDS

Patent this! (a look at TT's patents effect on the marketplace) January p.64
Futures without floors: Jobs for non-traders (the future of exchanges) February p.76
Tops & Bottoms of 2004 (a tongue in cheek look at the year's events) February p.80
Futures interview: Harris Brumfield makes an offer (Q&A with TT's CEO) March p.68
Not your fathers trading technology (technology enhancements) March p.72
Why can't we all just get along? (changing relationships among exchanges) April p.66
Hot commodities will get hotter (Q&A with hedge fund guru Jim Rogers) May p.64
Emerging markets: The next generation (a look at fledgling exchanges in China and India) June p.72
Trader's guide to the E.U. galaxy (creating synergy in Europe) July p.74

Barbarians at the gate (cautionary look at cyber thieves and identity theft) August p.62
Corporate governance: Who pulls the strings? (Eurex and hedge fund TCI) September p.76
Learning from history (a look at market panics over the years) October p.66
Not your granddad's grain silo (moving physical markets online) November p.76
Top 50 brokers (Futures' year in review) December p. 64

SPECIAL ISSUE: HOW TO NAVIGATE THE NEW LANDSCAPE OF TRADING

Managing risk in all seasons (Q&A with futures legend Richard Sandor) Special Issue p.6
We miss the wacky jackets, but dig those tight spreads! (the new liquidity providers) Special Issue p.12
The new contract explosion (a look at new markets) Special Issue p.16
Futures vs. cash: What's the difference? (different currency platforms) Special Issue p.22
Forex regulation in the spotlight (CFTC reauthorization) Special Issue p.28
The front end of electronic futures activity (ISVs in the age of patent litigation) Special Issue p.32

DEPARTMENTS

EDITORS NOTE

Poor Ben's Almanac, January p.10
Crude language, February p.10
Oh but for the Ides, March p.10
Deficit attention disorder, April p.10
Commodities and the Man, May p.10
Go with the flow, June p.10
Froth and all that, July p.10
Beware of pirates, August p.10
In a blink, September p.10
Birth of the blues, October p.10
Hitting the switch, November p.10
Too big to fail?, December p. 10

TRENDLINES

January p.14 – Eurex US drops fees, takes on New York • Chartview: Riding the wave of FX growth • Indexes ditch listing rights • Climate exchange goes online • International news • New Year's resolutions
February p.14 – TT shows its hand in patent fight • Chartview: Records • Securities futures shake-out continues • Growers ask feds to look into O.J. • Euronext, Eurex, MTS in spotlight • Nybot to trade paper electronically • International news
March p.14 – CFTC energy crackdown continues • Chartview: Spiders options have many webs • Citibank EU bond investigations heat up • Griffin repayment on horizon • Firm claims loophole in TT patents • LSE: the race is on! International news
April p.14– NFA lassos forex • TT takes next step • Race to a global oil mart; Ethanol wars • International news
May p.12 – CFTC wants to tweak rules • Chartview: OneChicago to take on partners • Changes afoot at Nymex • How to trade current events • CME's FX prices to get super • International news
June p.14 – TT turns up the heat • Chartview: A profitable model • Shareholders flex muscle, exchanges cringe • Plans go forward • NYSE may set off domino effect • CME to launch security futures products • International news
July p.14 – ISE does it again • Chartview: S.A. beans launch, meal to come? • China integrating at own speed • Patsystems acknowledges infringement • CBOE chips away at exercise rights • International news
August p.14 – Eurex US moving into forex • Chartview: CBOT for sale? • Euronext beats out eSpeed for MTS • Refco Acquires CIS • Markets withstand terror attack
September p.14 – Rosenthal files lawsuit against TT • Chartview: Static ladder scorecard • CFTC reauthorization hits a glitch • Return of the king • Energy bill ramps up alternative fuels production • International news
October p.14 – New Orleans point of origin • Chartview: Gulf of Mexico stats • Pelicans in flight • Eurex: A yellow light for chicago • In the ring with TT • CBOT upgrades platform • International news
November p.14 – Geared up for financials • Chartview: Feeding false prices • Shoot-out at the Nymex corral • PHLX next to challenge CBOT Treasuries • NFA fighting forex fraud • International news
December p.14 – Refco implodes • Chartview: CBOT goes public • How safe are seg funds anyway… • One unhappy customer • International news

TRADING PLACES

Michael V. Dunn, Fred Hatfield new CFTC commissioners, January p.20
Tilly back for second term, February p.20
AMEX names acting CEO, March p.20
Griffin joins Arnold & Porter, April p.20
Joe Murphy elected chairman of FIA, May p.20
Aronson new CEO of PlusFunds Group, June p.18
Jeffrey nominated to head CFTC, July p.20
Purdey to lead FFastFill U.S., August p.19
Mercorella joins Beeland, September p.20
Collins to expand ICAP futures, October p.20
Swiss boss to head Deutsche Boerse, November p.20
Bernanke named to head Fed, December p.20

MANAGED MONEY REVIEW

Comeback kids, January p.21
Hedge fund fights back, February p.18
MFA making lemonade, March p.18
CME makes average pricing simpler, April p.18
CFTC to up spec limits, May p.18
April showers, June p.18
Retail clients are "the stickiest," July p.18
Converting out, August p.18
Regulators have active month, September p.18
Rough days for Bayou investors, October p.18
CME takes on OTC, November p.18
Philadelphia story, December p.18

MARKET STRATEGY

Oil shock underway, February p.38
Stepping in as Bank of Japan stays out, March p.32
will equities stall in the second quarter?, April p.24
Will the U.S. dollar move higher?, May p.24
Yuan to yen rescue, June p.32
Aussie impact on Chinese policy, July p.26
It's supply and demand, stupid, August p.22
Disco fever, $70s style, September p.36
Fundamentals and technicals align, October p.24
Gold has found new life, November p.34
A time in history, December p.23

MARKET WATCH

A transparently uncertain FED, March p.24
Fed chooses to fight inflation, June p.51
Ensuring the Greenspan legacy, September p.26
Managing the inflation risk, November p.24

FOREX TRADER

Trend principles, tactics and new tools, January p.34
The music of forex, February p.36
The misbehavior of forex markets, March p.34
Innovations in technology, April p.34
How to gauge your forex IQ May p.32
Forex strategies for globalization, June p.34
Crosspairs are worth watching, July p.36
A look at forex trading contests, August p.30
Trading after China's revaluation, September p.38
Getting started in forex options, October p.34
Playing fundamental breakouts, November p.36
Forex prognostication for 2006, December p.30

ONLINE TRADING

Fishing for profits without indicators, February p.68
A better educated trader lasts longer, March p.61
Fulfilling your data needs, April p.61
Trading with a newsletter, May p.55
Finding your winning edge, July p.64
Looking for opportunities in stocks, August p.55
Forex: cash vs. exchange traded, September p.67
Extended trading hours, October p.59
Forex trading and education in one place, November p.66
Front ends and automated trading, December p.56

SOFTWARE REVIEW

Scarr Visual Trading, April p.65
TradeSmart 2.0, May p.60
eSignal 7.9, July p.66
Market System Analyzer, August p.66
S-Plus 7.0, September p.59
RealTick 8.2 Townsend Analytics Ltd., October p.60
Dynamic Market Lab, November p. 68
Wealth-Lab Pro, December p.58

BOOK REVIEW

Trend Following: How Great Traders Make Millions in Up or Down Markets by Michael Covel, January p.70
Candlesticks, Fibonacci and Chart Pattern Trading Tools: A Synergistic Strategy to Enhance Profits and Reduce Risk by Robert Fischer and Jens Fischer, January p.70
Technical Analysis: Power tools for active investors, by Gerald Appel, June p.71
Fischer Black and the Revolutionary Idea of Finance by Perry Mehrling, July p.79
Julian Robertson: A Tiger in the Land of Bulls and Bears by Daniel A. Strachman, July p.79
Forex Revolution: An Insider's Guide to the Real World of Foreign Exchange Trading by Peter Rosenstreich, October p.71
Initial Public Offerings by Richard P. Kleeburg, October p.71
Trading Stocks and Commodities with the Insiders, Secrets of the COT Report, by Larry Williams, November p.83
The Demise of the Dollar...and Why it's Great for Your Investments, by Addison Wiggin, November p.83
Fortune's Formula, by William Poundstone and Hedge Fund Masters, by Ari Kiev, December p.75

TRADER PROFILE

Stefano Durdic, Out with the old..., January p.82
Capping risk brings profits (Reynoso Cap. Mgmt.), February p.94
Caine: Managing premium, managing risk, March p.86
Richard Scalone's conservative approach, April p.82
Ascendia making liquid profits, May p.82
Smith Point surfs T-note volatility, June p.86
QIM: quantifying profits, July p.80
Newell and the essence of trading, August p.78
Bruno Stenger: Brewing up profits, September p.90
Ghandour keeps it simple, October p.82
Dekker scores with systematizing, November p.94
Schroeder: Putting theory to the test, December p.86